Annals of entry.

The Orleans county convention of the W. C. T. U. will be held with the Coventry Union, Thursday and Friday, May 13 and 14. An interesting and helpful program has been prepared. Our speakers from away will be our state secretary, Miss Elsie Pease, and Miss Lillian Phelps of Niagara Falls. Miss Phelps is a charming speaker and comes to us highly recommended. She is touring the state, and her work is really the opening of the campaign for state prohibition in 1916. We urge every union in the county to send delegates to this meeting as we feel the importance of the work, especially this campaign year. Please notify Mrs. W. E. Niles in regard to entertainment. Orleans County W. C. T. U. has always taken first rank in the work of the state and let us make this the very best convention we have ever held.

Yours for service, M. L. Pearson.

Village Improvements Contemplated.

The incorporated village has purchased a gravel bank near the one recently bought by the town of the river road to Orleans, and will use the gravel from the bank to improve the streets of the village this summer. These banks have only recently been discovered and should prove a source of much good to both the town and village. It is hoped that operations can commence within the next week and several teams will be put on the job. It is understood that Main street will be resurfaced and South Church street will probably be graveled. The trustees have also decided to experiment to a small extent with oiling the streets this season and have contracted for oil from the Standard Oil company, who will also do the work of putting it on with their automatic pressure carts.

Another improvement in the village will be the new sewage system, which has been planned for several years, and which it was voted at the recent village meeting to commence this summer. This new sewage line will run near the brook which comes down past the Mrs. Ruggles property and one line will branch off after going through the underpass near Reid's and run to the McEllan and Gilmore section of the village, while the other will be laid up Lincoln avenue to High street and offer easy access to houses on Lincoln avenue and a part of High street.

It is contemplated also putting in an under street drain from the post-office to the sewer near Batchelder's store, and then grading and building up the street around the park. No portion in the village needs the attention more than the square. All other streets in the village were dry while the street in front of the Seaver block and Batchelder and Pierce & Barrows blocks was a mud-hole this spring.

Another of our old time citizens, Mrs. Mary Hafford, died at her home on Lake street April 27. The funeral was held on the 29th at St. Paul's Catholic church and interment in the Catholic cemetery at St. Johnsbury, beside the remains of her husband, who died in 1870 and was buried there as there was no consecrated ground here at that time. Her maiden name was Mary Dolan. She was born in Rosary, Tipperary county, Ireland, Aug. 15, 1822 and married there to Thomas Hafford Sept. 29, 1849. They soon crossed the ocean and first made their home in New Hampshire but came to this town in 1857 with the railroad, by which he was employed until his death. They were the parents of seven children, but she is survived by only four, three sons and a daughter: Edward and Mary in the home here, Thomas of Lyndonville and John of Portsmouth, N. H. And to one who covered nearly a century of life, more than half of it in our midst, has passed from among us. "None knew her but to love her, none saw her but to praise."

FLOODED!

This is "Free Monitor Month" and the number of people who have asked to have the Monitor sent them during May in accordance with our offer, or whose names have been sent by others, has nearly swamped the office. One man asked to have the Monitor sent to over 20 of his friends and we are glad to do it. Others have given us many names and every mail has brought letters and postcards from individuals who want it. The telephone has also been busy. But we are glad to get them all and every one will get the Monitor every issue in May. We merely ask those who have requested it, to have patience and if the paper comes a day late, remember it is because our normal mailing facilities are warped out of shape.

Incidentally this flood of names is a tribute to the value of advertising. Not alone in the Monitor has this campaign been advertised but three competing local papers have been used to advertise "Free Monitor Month." We trust that everyone of the 891 who receive the four free copies of the Monitor will read and enjoy it. That's the Monitor's joy in doing this somewhat expensive bit of publicity work.

Methodist Episcopal Church Notes

We are glad to welcome our pastor back for another year.

Sunday morning the pastor used for his subject, "Christianity a Delusion?" Text found in Ezekiel 21:21. If you follow the way God has pointed out, you will surely be right. God has set guide posts, danger signals and warnings all along the way, so there is no excuse for us to go wrong. We have not the slightest reason for thinking we can lead a bad life and at the end get a seat in heaven. We cannot sow thistles and reap a bountiful harvest of roses. We have proof that Christianity is no delusion by the way many Christians have talked when dying. Stephen, Paul, McKinley, Moody and many others. Christianity producing such glorious results cannot be a delusion.

Remember the prayer meeting Thursday evening at 7.30.

The hour for Junior League has been changed to 4 o'clock every Sunday afternoon.

Governor Appoints Cushman.

Henry B. Cushman of Newport has been appointed municipal judge of Orleans county by Governor Gates, the appointment to take effect from May 3d. Mr. Cushman formerly held this office when he was succeeded by Judge F. D. Thompson of Barton under an appointment of Governor Meade.

Landslide at Willoughby.

A big landslide occurred at Willoughby lake during Thursday night, when immense rocks starting from the summit of Mount Pisgah tore their way down the mountain side, and plunged into the lake. One big boulder estimated to weigh from ten to twenty tons, landed in the road and in a measure blocked the road for a time. Nearly every spring there are slides on this side of the lake and no little expense is involved each season in road repair caused by them.

Mrs. M. H. Lewis.

Mrs. Mary Elliott Lewis died at her home in West Burke, after an illness of only about three weeks, although she had been in poor health for some time. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis went there from Barton nearly two years ago, when Mr. Lewis bought the furniture business formerly owned by Harley Chapell.

Mrs. Lewis was born in Barton in August, 1855. She was married at Glover to Merton H. Lewis and for several years they lived in West Glover, returning to live in Barton on the place known as the Benton farm and later returning again to West Glover; from there they moved to Barton a few years ago. Mrs. Lewis has been a woman loved and respected by everyone and a kind and loving wife and mother.

She leaves her husband, M. H. Lewis, and four children, Mrs. Lula Baker, whose home is in the West, Walter St. Johnsbury, Raymond Lewis of Barton and Vera, the youngest child, who has lived with her parents at West Burke. Five grandchildren also survive her, as well as two brothers, Melvin Elliott and E. C. Elliott of Barton and two sisters, Mrs. Geo. and Mrs. Will Norris also of Barton and a number of nieces and nephews. The remains were brought to Barton, where the funeral was held from the Methodist church at 1 p. m., Tuesday Rev. I. A. Ranney, officiating. The interment was in the Welcome O. Brown cemetery in Barton.

Made in America Week.

Local merchants are entering into the Made in America week campaign. It is a good thing. A little civic pride is always good and the "Made in America" slogan, can be brought to the mind of every individual if everyone will do their part. We are a great big self-sustained and self-supporting nation and let's keep it in mind and buy American-made goods.

BARTON 17, CRAFTSBURY 11.

In the first game of the season, Barton academy defeated Craftsbury academy at Craftsbury Saturday by the score of 17 to 11. Because of the wet field and rainy, cold afternoon, the game was loosely played on both sides, although now and then were flashes of real baseball. Wallace Abbott, pitching this first game for the locals, handled the position well. He struck out ten men and allowed but seven hits. Craftsbury used three pitchers in a vain attempt to keep our boys from hitting the ball but when the smoke of battle had cleared away, our fellows had totaled 16 hits. Comstock, W. Abbott and Emerson each got three hits and Sears four. The Barton infield is playing a good game, but the outfield needs considerable training in order to cover their territory and play the game as they ought.

For Craftsbury Williams and L. Heidger excelled. The trip to Craftsbury was made in automobiles, which encountered some very muddy roads.

A party of high school girls also motored to Craftsbury to see the game.
